Elba K-9 unit helps in locating drugs during Sunday traffic stop

On Friday, Oct. 12, officers with the Elba Police Department, along with officers from the Opp Police Department, executed a search warrant at 221 Fox Street in Elba.

According to officials, a number of stolen items were recovered during the search of this residence. Also, illegal drugs and drug paraphernalia were seized. Elba Police said arrests were still pending as of press time this week as the investigation continued.

On Sunday, Oct. 14, an Elba Police officer made a routine traffic stop on Plant Avenue in Elba. The traffic stop was for no tag displayed on the vehicle.

Elba's K-9 [Tess] reportedly alerted on the driver's side door of this vehicle, and a search of the vehicle resulted in officers seizing a bag of marijuana. It was discovered in the door panel of the driver's side door.

Officers arrested John Mason Richardson for possession of marijuana.

Elba Nursing and Rehab announces opening of The Specialty Care Suites

Elba Nursing and Rehabilitation Center just announced the opening of The Specialty Care Suites of Elba.

The community is invited to join the staff at Elba Nursing and Rehabilitation Center as they dedicate this new unit on Tuesday Oct. 23, from 2-4 p.m. Refreshments and tours will be provided.

This unit will offer care for those patients facing life-limiting or threatening illnesses. The care will specialize in pain management and symptom control for hospice patients and those patients requiring tracheostomy or other complex care.

For patient and family comfort, this unit will provide private suites along with a separate entrance. Both emotional and spiritual support will be available for patients and their families with a prayer room on site.

Elba's Pumpkins on Square set for Oct. 30th

Halloween kicks off in force Tuesday, Oct. 30, at 6 p.m. in Elba for one of the Wiregrass area's most fun fall events.

For one evening only, Elba hosts 'Pumpkins on the Square' a Halloween extravaganza around the square.

Building on the tradition of safe trick or treating for children the event is presented by the City of Elba and Elba Chamber of Commerce. It is made possible thanks to the support of Chamber member local businesses, churches and organizations.

All are invited to dress up the little ones and trick-or-treat at the ultimate neighborhood—Elba's Court Square! Come and join the fun at Pumpkins on the Square beginning at 6 p.m. "Pumpkins on the Square is a family-focused event where neighbors can meet fellow neighbors and have Trick-or-Treat fun in a safe environment," said Elba

Chamber of Commerce executive director Sandy Bynum. "It is inspiring to work with our business community, organizations, and churches that are all dedicated to helping make trick or treat a safe event for area children. The Chamber invites families to come early shop and dine then come join the party." This year's festival will include decorated tables scattered around the Square sponsored by civic groups, business folks, and church groups all distributing free candy. Offerings of other fun activities for the whole family to enjoy will also be available.

There will be small fee events such as the Hayride, jumpy houses, Gypsy fortune telling, and costume contest.

The Coffee County Extension Service's Farm City Committee will again sponsor free locally grown boiled peanuts. The Clements Community Gathering Space will be decorated with the Jack O' Lantern Carving Contest participants.

Those participating in the Pumpkin Carving Contest should deliver the pumpkins to the Elba Chamber of Commerce office by Monday, Oct. 29th. The pumpkins should have the contestant's name and phone number somewhere on it.

Prizes will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd place in the contest. Children and Adult divisions will be judging, if enough participation in the contest.

Coffee County EMA organizing assistance for storm damaged sections of three state area

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

James Brown, the Coffee County Emergency Management Agency (EMA) director, met Tuesday afternoon, Oct. 16, with a group of key volunteers to plan the next step in helping victims of the recent Hurricane Michael.

Brown stressed that working together was important in this or any disaster recovery. He said the first priority was the storm victims in Alabama. From there he wanted to make a smooth move into helping the people of South Georgia and the Panhandle of Florida.

Houston County EMA staff members said they need people to sort donations and deliver food to homebound storm victims.

Brown reported that almost one and a half million power outages were reported in the wake of the hurricane.

He said FEMA is supplying water, tarps and Meals Ready to Eat (MREs) so donations from volunteers should be of other items.

There are designated spots in both Florida and Georgia for donation collection and distribution depots.

THE GROUP FROM ELBA THAT DROVE TO GRACEVILLE, FL Sunday afternoon, Oct. 14, and fed several hundred storm victims were from left—Whitney Blackmon holding her daughter Lillie, Colin Arnold, Connie Pettis, Seth Hanchey, Trae Hilburn, Sharon Blackmon, Justin Ludlum, Kiera Ludlum, Linda Hodge, Ashley Brunson, and Greg Hanchey.

The volunteers fed donated Ranch House BBQ pork and chicken, green beans, rice and hotdogs. When they ran out of BBQ buns, the volunteers grabbed up hotdog buns and continued their sandwich making.

The teenagers with the group were last minute additions. They overheard that the plan was in place to feed the victims and said, "We want to help." Anyone watching the smooth operation of the project would quickly attest that it could not have happened without those enthusiastic helpers.

In addition to the food, the group passed out personal hygiene need items donated by Elba area citizens who collected items that any disaster victim would need.

Greg Hanchey, owner of The Ranch House, said the purpose of Sunday's outreach was to show Elba's generosity to those in need.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

"Those who say that we're in a time when there are no heroes, they just don't know where to look." – Ronald Reagan, January 20, 1981

Last Sunday was National Dessert Day. Of course Sunday is also the main day for Christians and many other religions to concentrate on God and hope this reduces their stress. All else failing, remember that "Stressed" spelled backwards is "desserts." So the (always free) advice from this advisor is eat, eat, eat those delightful and calorie rich desserts, all the while leaving the stress behind.

It has been heartwarming to see the outpouring of aid of all sorts that is being funneled to the thousands of victims of the recent devastating storm. Anyone who has experienced a disaster firsthand will quickly tell you how refreshing it is to receive any help, regardless of how small it might seem to the giver.

At our house the electric power was off only a couple of hours and seeing those lights come back on was a thrill. Multiply that by the days and days our fellow citizens are having to cope with the lack of power and we feel even more thankful. Then we look around and see hundreds without a home to get power back to and we are more humbled.

Now we will vent a bit. For days and days there were warnings that the storm was going to hit somewhere along the Gulf coast and folks needed to get out NOW. As always all too many didn't heed the advice at the time and were stuck in the dangerous areas throughout the storm. Then when things got really rough they wanted help . . . in other words they wanted other people to risk their own lives because of their efforts to defy Mother Nature. Sure we would have helped them if possible during that terrible time but our impulse would have been to first slap them aside the head with a ball bat and then rescue them from the storm!

Sunday afternoon we watched as the management of The Ranch House in Elba, along with a stack of volunteers, cooked a bunch of BBQ, rice, beans, etc., hauled it to Graceville, FL and fed storm victims, no questions asked. The line of storm victims was long, the air was hot, etc., but those folks all waited patiently until the line moved up and they were served. We have no idea how many people were fed, but the food was all eaten. In fact when the BBQ buns ran out, the volunteers began stuffing the meat into hotdog buns! The only difference is the shape of the bread sooo . . . not a crumb nor morsel of meat was wasted!

It was also heartwarming to see those power company workers going from one destroyed power pole to the next as they put in long, long hours getting the electricity back on to one more customer and then one more until maybe by the weekend all but the worst parts of the power grid down around the coast will be back in service.

~ A Special Thank You from Coffee County EMA ~

James Brown, Director and Grant Lyons, Deputy Director

The Coffee County Emergency Management Agency (CCEMA) would like to thank everyone for their response as well as listening for and paying attention to our warnings before and during Hurricane Michael.

Your preparation makes our recovery much smoother. We are constantly in awe of the great cooperation and support provided by the citizens, civic leadership, businesses, educators, and first responders in Coffee County.

It's clear that we pull together and support each other during times of crisis like no other area in our great state. Through our office we have the pleasure of observing the profound dedication of our community to not only help each other but also to reach out and offer assistance to our neighbors.

Though the impact of Hurricane Michael was minimal in our county, we came together and with the assistance of our Community Emergency Response Team supported sheltering 88 of our friends and neighbors from the effects of the storm.

Road crews and first responders were able to address needs and respond to calls for service throughout the duration of this event. This resulted in an early termination of the curfew. Additionally, we had many conversations with our school officials and their first priority is and remains the safety of our children.

Now, our citizens and businesses are reaching out to help each other through donations of supplies, time and money. We could not live in a better community. We in Emergency Management thank you for your attention, preparation and support. It is a pleasure serving you.

Together we make this community great!

Grimes Family Reunion celebrates 100 years

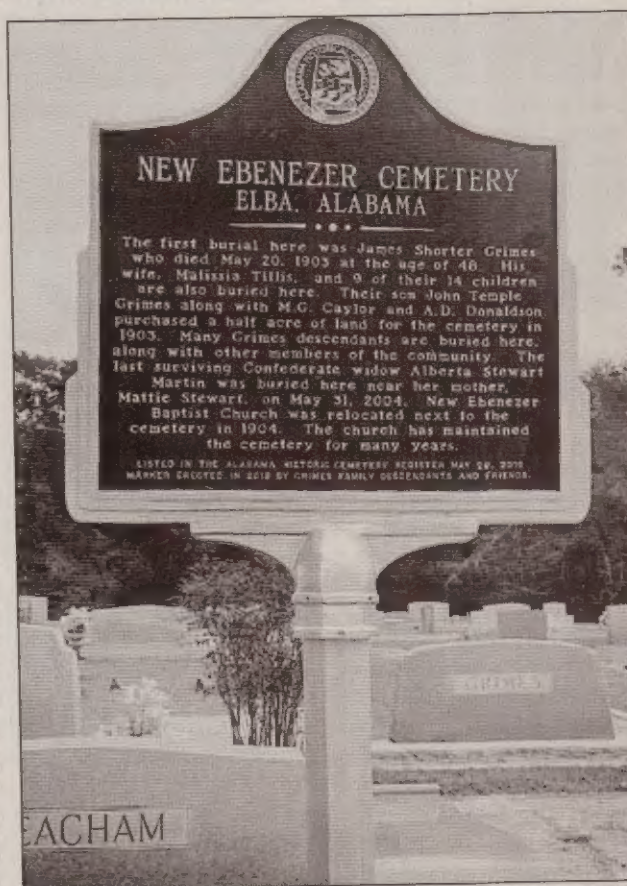

Over 50 descendants of James Shorter Grimes and his wife, Malissia Tillis Grimes, gathered Saturday, Oct. 6, for a reunion.

This reunion was first held on Sunday, Oct. 6, 1918, - one hundred years ago. The occasion was Malissia's birthday and her eldest son, John, leaving to go off to WWI. The war ended one month later on Nov. 11th, so he never had to go overseas.

Malissia's husband, James Shorter Grimes, died in 1903 at age 48, and she raised 14 children on her farm in the Curtis Community. They continued to celebrate her birthday every October.

They missed a few years having the reunion after Malissia died in 1952 at age 92, but the first cousins started the tradition a few years later. Only four first cousins are left out of 53, which include: Jean Meacham Peterson, Lucy Grimes Martin, Sue Smith Elliot, Frank Smith, and Jimmy Blankenship.

The Grimes reunion was held this year [Oct. 6] at the New Ebenezer Baptist Church picnic pavilion, when the descendants gathered to unveil an Alabama Historic Cemetery marker at the entrance to the cemetery where James Shorter Grimes was the first person to be buried in May 1903.

An Alabama Historic Cemetery Marker was unveiled Saturday, Oct. 6, at the New Ebenezer Church cemetery during the 100th edition of the Grimes family reunion. The marker is at the entrance to the cemetery near where James Shorter Grimes is buried.

THE LITTLE MISS NATIONAL PEANUT FESTIVAL PAGEANT is set for Saturday, Oct. 20, at 5 p.m. at the Dothan Civic Center. Make plans to attend and watch local representatives "Smile...Shine...Sparkle", with the hope of being crowned the next Little Miss National Peanut Festival Queen. Pictured above are Coffee County queens: Little Miss Zion Chapel - Harlie Luckenbaugh, Little Miss Kinston - Adalyn Whigham, Little Miss New Brockton - Annlynn Beck, the reigning Little Miss National Peanut Festival Queen - Caroline Motley, Little Miss Coffee County - Amelia Kay Wilks, and Little Miss Enterprise - Mary Kathryn Marshall.

Elba Masonic Lodge plans annual community chili cook-off event for Saturday, October 27th

The Elba Masonic Lodge #170 will host the 2nd annual Community Chili Cook-Off on Saturday Oct. 27.

Trophies will be awarded for 1st-2nd-3rd prizes and for the people's choice award.

Although donations will be accepted all participation is free. There is no entry fee for contestants and no admission fee to play games or entertainment.

It is a family-friendly event.

Sign up for chili entrees will begin at 3 p.m. The tasting and judging will begin at 5 p.m. with winners being announced at 7 p.m.

No regional football games on that Saturday so families are urged to come by and visit and enjoy the fellowship.

Elba Masonic Lodge is located at 340 Larkin Road (across from Elba Airport), in Elba, Ala.

DAV Chapter 99 plans holiday meal

The 6th Annual Holiday Meal for DAV Wiregrass Chapter 99 will be held Thursday, Nov. 15, at 6 p.m.

SEVERAL FOLKS FROM THE ELBA ADULT DAYCARE VISITED The Elba Clipper office last Friday morning, Oct. 12, as they were enjoying the Elba Walking Tour given by Sandy Bynum, executive director of the Elba Chamber of Commerce. The Clipper office is one of several stops along the official Elba Walking Tour, which is headed by the Chamber office. The Adult Daycare folks were super energetic about this learning experience, and most were surprised to learn that The Elba Clipper is the county's oldest newspaper. The Elba Adult Daycare participants and employees are pictured above with Sandy Bynum in front of The Elba Clipper office.

Anger at Twilight

I invite you to read Ephesians 4:25-32 and use this article as a devotional.

We have each lain in our beds seething toward our enemies, our friends, our co-workers, our loved ones, and possibly even ourselves. Yet, is there a correct time for anger? Should we as people of faith ever feel this emotion?

St. Paul's instruction of not letting the sun set on our anger comes immediately after he warns us to not sin while we are angry. Notice, he does not admonish those feeling anger, but instead cautions to not allow that anger to lead us to a place of sinfulness.

As people of faith, I believe there is a place for anger, inasmuch as there is a place for us to have emotion in the face of injustice; a catalyst for the desire for justice and alleviation of oppression. Yet, unbridled anger, anger at twilight, leads to wrath, and leads to an unhealthy and sinful place. However, we must not let fear lead us to a place of apathy or fatalism; we must neither numb ourselves to injustice nor fall into the false trap that we are powerless to change the situation.

While righteous indignation may be a catalyst for transformation it must never lead to hatred. There must always be room for forgiveness. When the Lord Jesus taught the first followers to pray one of the lines of that prayer is, "forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us." In this part of the prayer something bold is happening. The petitioner is asking God to forgive them in the same manner as they forgive those around them. In this prayer we are asking God to deal with us like we deal with other people.

Do you have anger in your life right now? If so, have you allowed the sun to set on it? Is it leading you to an unhealthy place? Is there room for forgiveness as God has forgiven us?

This week commit to never allow the sun to set on your anger, to never allow anger to consume you. Be open to where you see injustice, and look for healthy avenues to work for change. Always be willing to meet God already at work in the world.

NOTICE OF FORECLOSURE

Default having been made in the payment of the indebtedness secured by that certain mortgage dated December 15, 2009, executed by Leslie Edge Patton and John William Patton Jr., husband and wife, to the United States of America acting through the Rural Housing Service or successor agency, United States Department of Agriculture, which mortgage was recorded on December 18, 2009, in Official Record Book 510, Page 248, and re-recorded in Official Record Book 549, Page 178, of the mortgage records in the Office of the Judge of Probate of Coffee County, Alabama, notice is hereby given that pursuant to law and the power of sale contained in said mortgage, the undersigned will sell at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, in front of the Main entrance to the Coffee County Courthouse at Elba, Alabama, during the legal hours of sale on November 1, 2018, the following described real estate, situated in Coffee County, Alabama, to-wit:

Lot No. 11 in Block "B" of the Goodson Subdivision of the City of Enterprise, Alabama as recorded in Plat Book 1, Page 16, in the Office of the Judge of Probate, Enterprise, Coffee County, Alabama. ALSO: Ten feet of land, more or less, across the back of the C. B. Moore Lot No. 11 in Block "B" of the Goodson Subdivision, beginning at the Southwest corner of the Cockrell lot No. 12, running Southerly 75 feet along the east side of the Mauldin lot, then in an Easterly direction 10 feet back to the Moore lot.

This sale is made for the purpose of paying the indebtedness secured by said mortgage as well as expenses of foreclosure. This property will be sold on an "as is, where is" basis, subject to any easements, encumbrances, and exceptions reflected in the mortgage and those contained in the records of the office of the Judge of Probate of the County where the above-described property is situated. This property will be sold without warranty or recourse, expressed or implied as to condition, title, use and/or enjoyment and will be sold subject to the right of redemption of all parties entitled thereto.

Alabama law gives some persons who have an interest in property the right to redeem the property under certain circumstances. Programs may also exist that help persons avoid or delay the foreclosure process. An attorney should be consulted to help you understand these rights and programs as a part of the foreclosure process. The successful bidder must tender a non-refundable deposit of Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000.00) in certified funds made payable to Stephens Millirons, P.C. at the time and place of sale. The balance of the purchase price must be paid in certified funds by noon on the second business day following the sale at the law firm of Stephens Millirons, P.C. at 120 Seven Cedars Drive, Huntsville, Alabama 35802. Stephens Millirons, P.C. reserves the right to award the bid to the next highest bidder should the highest bidder fail to timely tender the total amount due. Elba Marching Tigers deliver A-Town surprise

WHEN THE ELBA HIGH SCHOOL MARCHING TIGER BAND PERFORMED AT THE A-TOWN INVITATIONAL CONTEST on Saturday, Oct. 6, the band had a special surprise for those in attendance. Guitarists Slice and Tick [aka Enrique Duncan (left) and Jacob Rodriguez (right)] were driven into the stadium and performance by limo, provided by Affordable Luxury Limos. Competition was tough at this contest, but the Elba High School Marching Tiger Band earned straight superior ratings.

ROBERSON NAMED ALFA'S PLAYER OF THE WEEK...Junior linebacker Dezmion Roberson is Alfa Insurance's Player of the Week. Roberson made eight tackles and five assists which led to Brantley only making two points during the entire game in Elba 26-2 victory on Friday, Oct. 5th. In the photo to the left is a close up of the award presented last week to Roberson by Alfa Insurance agent Ralston Moore. The photo to the right is of Roberson and Moore during the award presentation. Also pictured are several of Roberson's teammates.

Elba High School raises money for local children fighting cancer

The Elba Tiger athletics, cheerleaders, and band went gold Friday, Sept. 28, to support all childhood cancer fighters.

The students also raised money for two local children, Addison and Jaylen. All the badge and tattoo money earned that Friday was raised for their treatments.

Due to the game that Friday being cancelled, the cheerleaders continued to take donations for Addison and Jaylen during the October 5th game.

In all, EHS band, cheer, volleyball, and football raised $460.

NOTICE!

The Elba High School Marching Tiger Band is looking for business partners for the 2018 Pea River Marching Band Classic. Any contributions made will help make this inaugural contest a success. If interested, contact Shaun Hammonds at shammonds@elbaed.com to find out more.

Views From The Pressbox

By Ricky Mularz, Sports Editor

Our little grandson Lawson got in a little fishing over the weekend, but after a couple of minutes with no bites decided it was time to put down his pole and have fun on a sunny day at the park. He has plenty of patience when he is playing with his video games, but when he is outside whatever happens better happen fast.

For what it is worth....

 The Elba Tigers saw their perfect record and region title hopes go down in flames last week with a 35-27 loss at Georgiana. The Tigers had success on offense on almost every possession and despite twice failing to score after driving inside the 'red zone,' scored the most points allowed by the aggressive Panther defense all season. Richmon Singletary had another big night as he rushed for 157 yards and two touchdowns, caught two passes for 19 yards and returned a kickoff 87 yards for a score, while quarterback Byron Johnson also had a solid night as he rushed for a season-high 68 yards and hit on six passes for 78 yards and one score. The offensive line held its own against the big and physical Georgiana front wall despite being outnumbered, and all in all it was a pretty good night for the offense. Over on defense, the Tigers held their own at times and did force three punts, but also allowed over 300 yards rushing and 11 rushing plays that went for over 10 yards. The middle of the defense got pushed around at times, but the glaring weakness again was at the end position, where time and time again the speedy Panther backs got outside and gained big yardage. It was a disappointing loss for the players, the coaches and all the Elba fans, but the Tigers played hard for all four quarters and I think they are a better team now than at this time last week when they were still undefeated. I know we all hate to lose, but in this case maybe the loss will awaken a sleeping giant that wears black and gold!

As far as the officiating in the game, all I can say is that if you ever travel to Georgiana on a Friday night and get hungry, head over to the stadium, because the home cooking served there may be as good as any to be found.

 It was a winning week for the teams in the area as all three teams that hit the field took home wins. New Brockton didn't play due to problems caused by the hurricane, but the rest of the folks enjoyed a winning week. Here is a quick look back....

 Kinston had one of its lowest offensive outputs of the season, but used a 'big play' passing attack to slide past Pleasant Home 20-14. The Bulldogs had to go to the air due to a struggling ground game. However, it worked out just fine as the duo of Austin Calhoun and Hunter Davis helped the Bulldogs win their second straight game.

 Zion Chapel used a stifling defense and a methodical offense to grind out a 27-12 region win over Central. The Rebels were in command throughout the game, despite the less than impressive final score, and simply took care of business against a team filled with athletes that in the past had given the Rebels fits.

 Brantley snapped a rare three-game losing streak and made it look easy in a 53-14 rout over Red Level. The Bulldogs scored almost at will in the first half to roll up a 34-0 lead and then let everyone in on the homecoming fun as a total of six different players crossed the goalline. It was business as usual up in Brantley.

 It was another wild week of high school football action across the state in all seven classes, and here is a look back at the week that was....

 Class 1A - Top-ranked Lanett coasted past Loachapoka 42-0, while #2 Linden had a tough time in claiming a 14-6 win over Francis Marion and #3 Maplesville thumped Isabella 32-0. Closer to home, Florala continued its trip up the region standings with a 63-29 win over McKenzie and Sweet Water continued its unexpected struggles with a 19-12 loss to Marengo.

 Class 2A - Top-ranked Fyffe rolled over #9 Cedar Bluff 56-0, while #2 Luverne was shocked by Highland Home 31-28. Closer to home, Abbeville hammered Daleville 54-0, Goshen had an easy time with Calhoun 34-0, G.W. Long picked up a rare win with a 24-15 victory over Houston County, and Leroy got spanked by Cottage Hill 35-9.

 Class 3A - Top-ranked Saks defeated Weaver 30-7 and #2 Mobile Christian battled past Flomaton 16-12, while closer to home T.R. Miller got knocked off by Thomasville 28-12, Wicksburg defeated Straughn 27-14, Houston Academy continued its surprise season with a 37-28 win over Geneva, Pike County slammed Slocomb 32-10 and Opp remained winless after a 61-0 beating administered by Providence Christian.

 Class 4A - Top-ranked UMS-Wright coasted past Monroe County 65-0 and #2 Hokes Bluff rolled over Cleburne County 49-10, while closer to home Headland remained unbeaten with a 41-7 win over Ashford, Andalusia got surprised by Escambia County 24-3, Hillcrest of Evergreen continued its recent struggles with a 6-0 loss to Clarke County and Dale County was shut out by Trinity 10-0.

 Class 5A - Top-ranked Vigor blanked Faith 41-0 and #2 Etowah blasted Douglas 54-0, while closer to home #6 Greenville ripped Beauregard 34-13, #7 Carroll was shocked by Charles Henderson 17-7 and Rehobeth continued its struggles in a 39-14 loss to Tallassee.

 Class 6A - Top-ranked Pinson Valley defeated Huffman 41-6 and #2 Spanish Fort blanked Baldwin County 10-0, while closer to home Northview downed Dothan 17-7, Lanier surprised Carver 35-25 and Eufaula lit up the scoreboard in a 54-31 win over Russell County.

 Class 7A - Top-ranked Central of Phenix City dumped R.E. Lee 44-17, while #2 Hewitt-Trussville fell to #7 Mt. Brook 20-17. Closer to home, #4 Auburn blanked Smiths Station 34-0 and in a coastal upset #9 Theodore knocked off #6 McGill-Toolen.

 It wasn't the best of weeks for college teams in the state as Alabama was the only team to hang up a 'W' on its side of the ledger. The Crimson Tide jumped head early and then rallied despite a number of injuries to knock off Missouri, while Auburn continued its slide with a home loss to Tennessee that left the Tiger fans ready to sell the 'Gus Bus' for a discounted price, and Troy's easy win over Liberty turned into a nightmare as the Trojans got caught reading their own headlines.

 Ye Ole Polish Prognosticator dropped by over the weekend still moaning about all the injuries beginning to mount at Tuscaloosa, and then predicted that Elba's road loss last week to Georgiana will awaken a sleeping giant that should create havoc in coming weeks in the 1A ranks. The local guesspert hit on 28 of his 35 picks last week to move his season totals to 184-48, and then left this week's fearless forecast. Here it is....

ELBA VS. RED LEVEL

The Pea River felines had a long walk back home last week after losing a catfight up in Butler County, and this week will face another long walk when they head over to the woods in Covington County for a catfight with some kitties that will have their backs to the wall. The hometown kitties will scratch and claw for all four quarters, but in the end the felines should survive with a much-needed win.

ELBA 34 RED LEVEL 12

NEW BROCKTON VS. HIGHLAND HOME

The roosters from over near the bypass will have to leave their nests this week for a much-anticipated showdown against a bunch of flyboys from up the road and can move atop the region standings with a win. The flyboys have been dropping bombs on any and all challengers in recent weeks, and if the roosters can dodge the bombs, an upset could be in the making.

Key region match-ups on tap this week

The high school football regular season may be winding down fast, but that doesn't take away the importance of the remaining games as all five teams in the area will be fighting for playoff spots this week in week #8 action.

Following is a preview of this week's match-ups:

Elba at Red Level

The (5-1) Elba Tigers will be looking to lock down the #2 seed in the region, while the (4-3) Red Level Tigers will be looking to earn a spot in the playoffs for the first time in eight years Friday night when the two region rivals meet at Crystal Springs Park, in Red Level.

Elba leads the all-time series 3-1 and posted a lopsided 80-6 win in the last meeting back in 2011, but a loss last week in Georgiana threw a kink into the Tigers' playoff plans and they must now win their final two region games to secure the homefield advantage in the opening round of the playoffs.

Red Level must post one win its final two region games to earn a spot in the playoffs for the first time since 2010, and will enter this week's contest with a winning record as it has posted wins over McKenzie 12-6, Pleasant Home 15-14, Kinston 41-40 and Calhoun 54-0, while losing to Zion Chapel 40-33, Florala 68-26 and Brantley 53-14.

"Don't let what happened back in 2010 fool ya, this is a must win for the Elba Tigers and we are approaching the game as the most important game of the season," stated Elba head coach Pate Harrison. "Red Level needs to win one of its final two games to make the post season and they have to feel this will be their best chance. Red Level will be playing at home in front of its fans and we know we will get their best effort of the season when the game kicks off Friday night. On offense they run a one-back power attack and try to let their line control the line of scrimmage. They have a very good back that can take it to the house on any play, and a quarterback that is very comfortable at his position and can make plays. Over on defense they like to stop the run first, and have some big linemen that can clog up holes. This is not the same Red Level team that didn't win a game last season. This team plays hard and plays to win, and we expect a real battle on Friday night in a must win game for both teams."

"If we are going to be successful this week we will have to come out fast and never let our foot off the pedal," said Harrison. "We have to score when we get in the red zone and not let them hang around and gain confidence. On offense we need to dominate the line of scrimmage be effective both running and passing. We need to show our dominance early on and never let up. On defense we will need to play much better on the corners, and that has been a priority all week. We must contain on the ends to force the opposing backs back inside and let the linebackers make the plays. We have been hurt time and time again with backs being able to get outside, and against Red Level we cannot allow that to happen. I know a lot of fans remember what happened back in 2010 and won't take the game seriously, but this is our biggest game of the season and I promise you we will find the players that want to play and play the game like they are coached, and that is who we will be depending on Friday night to lead us to a

ZION CHAPEL VS. SAMSON

The troops from up at Fort Jack have their traps set this week for a litter of kitties that are expected to arrive over the weekend, and hope the traps work as expected if they are to keep their playoff hopes alive. These kitties have been caught in similar traps a few times already this season. So, they just might see them before getting caught, again.

SAMSON 34 ZION CHAPEL 14

KINSTON VS. GEORGIANA

The bulldogs from down near the county line have shown their teeth in recent weeks and have some folks believing a trip to the playoffs may still be in the cards. While the recent wins did make everyone feel a little better, the cats coming to town this week may be just a little too tough to cage.

GEORGIANA 47 KINSTON 7

BRANTLEY VS. MCKENZIE

The bulldogs from up across the river got back in the win column last week after a dry spell and are now anxious to start another streak of another kind. The kitties from across the county line do have claws, but the guess here is that the bulldogs will make it look easy as the new streak gets rolling.

Georgiana at Kinston

The (2-5) Kinston Bulldogs will be hoping to keep their playoff hopes alive and pull off the biggest upset of the season Friday night when they host the (7-1) Georgiana Panthers.

The all-time series is tied at 4-4, while Georgiana dominated last season and rolled to a 60-8 win.

The Bulldogs have won their last two games and can make the playoffs with wins in their final two region contests, while the Panthers can wrap up their fourth straight region title with a win this week.

New Brockton at Highland Home

The (4-3) New Brockton Gamecocks will be looking to move into a first place tie in the region standings this week when they travel to Highland Home to battle the high flying (6-1) Highland Home Flying Squadron.

New Brockton leads the all-time series 6-2 and posted a lopsided 55-0 win in the last meeting back in 2015.

The Gamecocks enter the game riding the crest of a 4-game winning streak and can move into a tie atop the region standings with a big road victory, while the Flying Squadron have won their last six games and can clinch the region title for the first time since 2005 with a win this week.

Samson at Zion Chapel

The (4-3) Zion Chapel Rebels will be looking to keep their slim playoff hopes alive Friday night when they host the (3-4) Samson Tigers.

Samson leads the all-time series 1104 and won the last meeting between the region rivals 17-13 back in 2011.

The Rebels can even their region record at 3-3 and stay in the playoff picture with a win, while the Tigers have suffered through a disappointing season, but can improve their region slate to 3-2 with a win and keep their playoff hopes alive.

McKenzie at Brantley

The (4-3) Brantley Bulldogs will be looking to lock down a playoff berth Friday night when they host the (1-6) McKenzie Tigers.

Brantley leads the all-time series 34-17-2 and last season rolled to a lopsided 55-0 win.

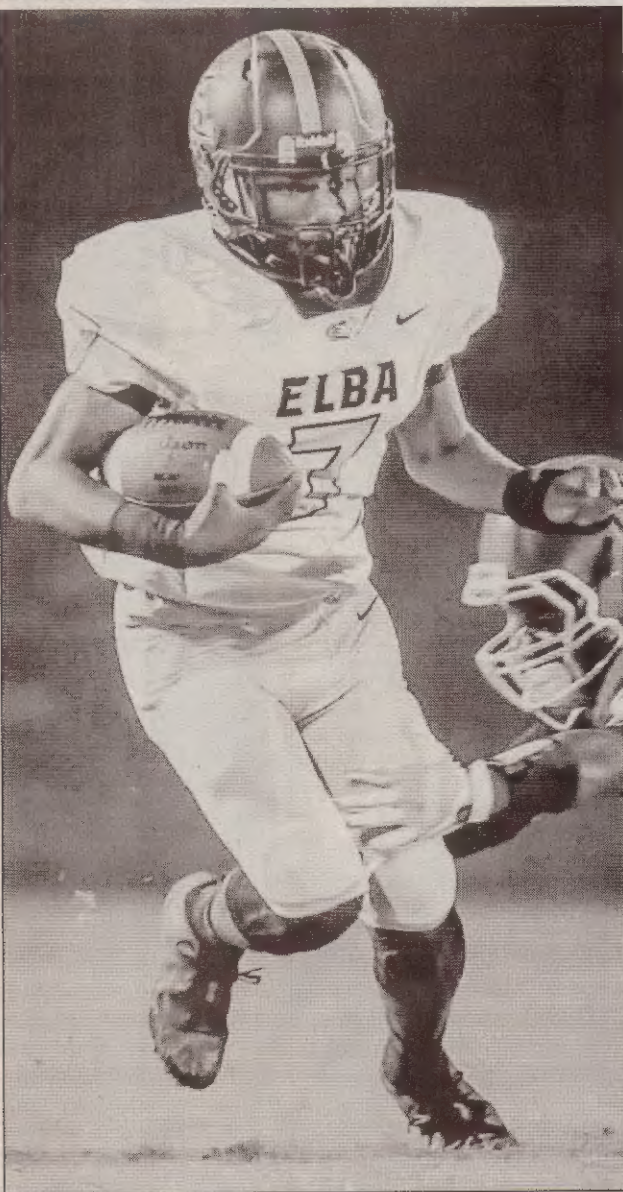

The Bulldogs snapped a rare three-game losing streak last week with a big win over Red Level, while the Tigers have struggled all season and are allowing over 40 points per game.

Tigers roar, but Panthers score

The Elba Tigers saw their five-game winning streak and dreams of a region title come to an abrupt end Friday night with a hard fought 35-27 loss to the Georgiana Panthers, in front of a large and boisterous crowd at Georgiana.

Georgiana received the opening kickoff and made it clear the Panthers intended to protect their home turf as Christopher Mixon fielded the kick at the 10-yardline, bounced outside after reaching the middle and raced 90 yards untouched for a touchdown. Mixon added the extra-point and with only 18-seconds gone off the clock the Panthers were already on top 7-0.

Elba appeared ready to answer the sudden score on its initial possession and led by the running of Richmon Singletary drove 49 yards in six plays to reach a first down at the Georgiana 16-yardline. Singletary rushed for 50 yards on four carries and pulled in a 12-yard pass reception during the long march downfield. However, a two-yard loss on third down and two at the 8-yardline stalled the march, and one play later the Tigers handed the ball back to the Panthers.

Elba quickly regained possession at the Georgiana 17-yardline after the Tigers Alex Wright blocked a Panther punt, and this time the Tigers cashed in the scoring opportunity to pull even on the scoreboard. The touchdown came on a 1-yard blast up the middle by Singletary on fourth down and goal on the first play of the second quarter, and Iverson Lane booted the extra-point as Elba pulled even at 7-7 with 11:55 left in the second quarter.

Georgiana began its ensuing possession at its own 42-yardline and went 58 yards in eight plays to regain the lead. A 10-yard pass completion from Christopher Mixon to Chase Black on third down and five kept the drive alive early, while the score came on a 13-yard run up the middle by Kyle Powell. A bad snap foiled the extra-point try, but with 7:48 left in the quarter the Panthers were back on top 13-7.

Elba reached a first down at the Georgiana 18-yardline on its next offensive series led by the running of Byron Johnson, but a 10-yard loss on first down and two penalties against the Tigers backed the Tigers up and forced a fourth down punt. The punt proved to be a plus for the Tigers; however, as Georgiana gambled with a return near the goalline and fumbled the ball back to the Tigers just inches from the goalline. Richmon Singletary scored on the next play on a one-yard run, and although the extra-point try failed, Elba was back even at 13-13 with 3:06 remaining in the half.

Georgiana started its next possession at its own 19-yardline and this time needed only seven plays to cover the 81 yards to the endzone. Christopher Mixon gained 38 yards on two carries and scored the touchdown on a 4-yard run, while Kyle Powell ran in the two-point conversion to put the Panthers back on top 21-13 with 1:05 still left in the half.

Elba failed to move the chains on its initial series of the second half, but regained possession at its own 38-yardline after a short Panther punt, and went 62 yards in four plays to get back into the endzone. Richmon Singletary gained 37 yards on two carries to help lead the Tigers down the field, while the score came on a 25-yard pass from Byron Johnson to Dezmon Roberson. A two-point run failed to produce points, but with 5:09 left in the third quarter the Tigers had cut the Panthers lead to 21-19.

Georgiana put the ball in play near midfield early in the fourth quarter after a series of punts and went 58 yards in three plays to stretch its lead. The score came on a 14-yard run by Mixon, and Mixon added the extra-point as the Panthers upped their lead to 28-19 with 7:43 left on the clock.

The big lead didn't last for long; however, as on the ensuing kickoff Elba's Richmon Singletary fielded the kick at the 13-yardline, spotted a hole in the middle of the field and raced 87 yards for a Tiger touchdown. Byron Johnson ran in the two-point conversion, and with 7:31 left Elba was within 28-27.

Georgiana recovered a squib kick near midfield on the ensuing kickoff and one play later was right back in the endzone as Christopher Mixon turned the corner on the Elba defense and scooted 40 yards down the sidelines for a touchdown. Mixon's extra-point try was true, and with 7:04 remaining in the final stanza the Panthers were back in charge with a 35-27 advantage.

Elba moved the chains once on its ensuing possession before being forced to punt, and Georgiana kept the ball for over four minutes to ice the exciting 35-27 Panther win.

Richmon Singletary rushed for 157 yards and 2 touchdowns on 25 carries and returned a kickoff 87 yards for a touchdown to spark the Elba offense, while Byron Johnson added 68 yards rushing on 8 carries and completed 6 of 12 passes for 78 yards and one score.

Christopher Mixon rushed for 154 yards and 3 td's on 13 carries and returned a kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown to lead Georgiana on offense, while Kyle Powell added 117 yards and one td on 18 carries.

The Kinston Bulldogs claimed their second straight win and kept their slim playoff hopes alive Friday night with an exciting 20-14 road win over the Pleasant Home Eagles.

The Kinston offense was unable to get anything going in the opening quarter and managed only one first down and 22 yards in total offense. However, the Bulldog defense was up to the task and tossed a shutout in the stanza as the two region rivals battled to a 0-0 deadlock.

Pleasant Home got on the scoreboard early in the second quarter on a 9-yard run by Eric Bradley, and Bradley also ran in the two-point conversion as the Eagles went on top 8-0 with 11:02 remaining in the second quarter.

Kinston's offense continued to have problems running the football against the stubborn eagle defense and had no success on its next two series, but came up with the first of its many big plays on its final possession of the half when Austin Calhoun hooked up with Hunter Davis on a 68-yard touchdown toss. The extra-point try failed, but with 31-seconds left on the clock the Bulldogs were finally on the scoreboard and trailed only 8-6.

Kinston began its initial series of the second half at midfield and returned to the airways with similar results as Austin Calhoun and Hunter Davis again hooked up, this time on a 50-yard touchdown pass. The extra-point try again failed; however, with 9:30 left in the third quarter the Bulldogs were now on top 12-8.

Pleasant Home took the ensuing kickoff and marched 64 yards in 11 plays to regain the lead. Jonathan Cooley rushed for 12 yards on two carries and completed all three of his pass attempts for 36 yards to lead the Eagles down the field, with the score coming on an 11-yard pass from Cooley to Austin Kelley. The extra-point try failed, but with 2:40 left in the quarter Pleasant Home had regained the lead at 14-12.

Kinston went three and out on its next two offensive series, but got a break when the Bulldogs Jakin Kirkland recovered an Eagle fumble at the Pleasant Home 43-yardline with 5:30 left in the fourth quarter, and the Bulldog offense came back to life and covered the distance to the endzone in four plays to move back on top. A 38-yard pass completion from Austin Calhoun to Hunter Davis was a key play in the scoring drive, while the touchdown came on a 1-yard dive by Calhoun. Calhoun also ran in the two-point conversion as the Bulldogs grabbed a 20-14 lead with 4:02 remaining on the clock.

Pleasant Home had two possessions in the closing minutes with a chance to rally and claim the win. However, a fumble recovery by Kinston's Dray Weeks ended one possession and a pass interception by Weeks ended the second and wrapped up the Bulldogs wild 20-14 road win.

Kinston's Austin Calhoun completed 4 of 12 passes for 180 yards and 3 touchdowns, with Hunter Davis pulling in all four completions, and Calhoun also rushed for 14 yards and one td.

Jonathan Cooley rushed for 69 yards on 11 carries and completed 5 of 10 passes, with 3 interceptions, for 92 yards and one td, while Eric Bradley added 32 yards and one td on the ground on six carries.

Kinston Bulldog Hunter Davis (11) pulls in a touchdown pass in last week's 20-14 region win over Pleasant Home. Davis caught four passes for 180 yards and two touchdowns in the big road win over the Eagles.

The Zion Chapel Rebels grabbed a key region win on the road Friday night as they defeated the Central Lions 27-12 to improve their record to 4-3 and even their region slate at 3-3 on the season.

Zion Chapel got on the scoreboard first on a 1-yard sneak by Aaron Senn, and Senn added the extra-point to put the Rebels on top early at 7-0 with 8:03 left in the first quarter.

The Rebels extended their lead to 14-0 with 1:29 remaining in the quarter when Hunter Oswald rambled 35 yards and Senn again added the extra-point, and then opened up a 21-0 advantage with 41-seconds left in the half on a 3-yard run by Aaron Senn, and Senn's third extra-point of the half.

Central got on the scoreboard and cut the Zion Chapel lead to 21-6 on the ensuing kickoff when Devonta Murphy returned the kick 74 yards for a touchdown.

The Rebel lead remained at 21-6 throughout the third quarter. However, Zion Chapel added a touchdown with 8:06 remaining on a 1-yard sneak by Aaron Senn to push the lead to 27-6, and even though the Lions scored in the final minute on a 13-yard run by Justin Taylor, the Rebels never lost control as they claimed the 27-12 road win.

Aaron Senn rushed for 32 yards and scored 3 touchdowns to spark the Zion Chapel offense, while Hunter Oswald rushed for 113 yards and one td, Andrew Cauley

The Brantley Bulldogs snapped their three-game losing streak Friday night with a big 53-14 homecoming win over the Red Level Tigers.

The Bulldogs raced out to a big 34-0 first half lead in front of a large homecoming crowd and coasted in with the win as everyone dressed in green got the chance to play and six different players scored touchdowns.

Brantley's Michael Booker returned the game's opening kickoff 40 yards to set the Bulldogs up at the Red Level 30-yardline, and three players later Tucker Kilcrease hit Messiah Burnett on a deep post pattern for 22 yards and a touchdown. The extra-point try was blocked, but with 10:32 still left in the first quarter Brantley was on its way with an early 6-0 lead.

On their second possession, the Bulldogs raced down the field 65 yards in only five plays to again reach the endzone. A key play in the scoring drive was a 48-yard gain by Jalanta Franklin, while the score came on a 5-yard pass from Kilcrease to Lucas Richardson in the corner of the endzone. Kilcrease passed to Parker Driggers for the two-point conversion, and with 7:05 left in the quarter the Bulldogs lead had grown to 14-0.

The next Brantley touchdown came on a 46-yard pass from Kilcrease to Driggers, and on the long scoring play Driggers pulled in the pass, headed down the sidelines and followed key blocks by Parker Odom and Benjamin Hughes into the endzone. Hughes added the extra-point as Brantley's lead grew to 21-0 with 4:33 remaining in the opening quarter.

Brantley began its next possession near midfield after another Red Level three and out, and on the third play of the series Tucker Kilcrease connected with Parker Driggers over the middle on a short pass, and Driggers outran the Tiger defense 58 yards for a Bulldog touchdown. Hughes again added the extra-point as Brantley's lead went to 28-0 with 54-seconds still left in the quarter.

D'Andrea Owens was the next Bulldog to get on the scoreboard as he scored on a 21-yard run up the middle to cap a six-play, 60-yard drive, and while the extra-point try failed, Brantley was now on top 34-0 with 8:50 left in the second quarter.

Red Level got on the scoreboard with 28-seconds left on the clock when Kade Green spotted Joel Phillips behind the Brantley defense and fired a strike that went for a 61-yard Tiger touchdown, and Joshua Ingram added the extra-point as Brantley went in at the half with a 34-7 advantage.

Brantley kicked off to open the second half, but Red Level kept the ball for only one play as on the Tigers first play from scrimmage the Bulldogs Lucas Richardson intercepted a pass to set the Brantley up at the Red Level 31-yardline. Three plays later Parker Driggers got into the endzone on a 4-yard run up the middle, and Hughes added the extra-point to up the Brantley lead to 41-7 with 10:23 remaining in the third quarter.

Red Level refused to throw in the towel; however, and stunned the Bulldog defense on its next series when Demarcus Johnson broke loose and raced 93 yards for a Tiger touchdown. Ingram added the extra-point as Red Level cut the deficit to 41-14 with 8:56 left in the quarter.

A 26-yard kickoff return by Brantley's Parker Driggers set the Bulldog offense up at the Red Level 44-yardline, and from there it took only one play for the 'Dogs to add to their lead as Kenuwyn Dixon took a handoff, found the sidelines and rambled 44 yards for a touchdown. The extra-point try failed, but with 5:41 left in the quarter the Bulldogs had upped their lead to 47-14.

Brantley got on the scoreboard once more when Jake Kilcrease cracked in from two yards out with 4:15 remaining in the fourth quarter to climax a 12-play drive that covered 46 yards, and at the final horn the celebration was on as the Bulldogs claimed the 53-14 region win.

Tucker Kilcrease had a big night passing as he completed 10 of 11 passes for 189 yards and 4 touchdowns, while Parker Driggers also enjoyed a big night with 5 rushes for 41 yards and one touchdown and two catches for 104 yards and two scores. Kenuwyn Dixon added 91 yards and one td on seven carries, Jalanta Franklin added 60 rushing yards.

"UNCLE CHARLIE" AN ELBA LEGEND

CHARLIE PORTER'S GRAVE IS FINALLY MARKED AT EVERGREEN CEMETERY with a granite marker, which has a photo of him sitting on his porch. He is buried in the old section near the southeast corner. Porter was known in Elba as "Uncle Charlie" and walked to Elba every day from his home on Old Samson Road. He reportedly was 121 ½ years old when he died on a cold winter day in January 1976. He was a friend to all, adults and children alike. A special thanks to Heath Wyrosdick, Evergreen Cemetery Sexton, for donating the marker and engraving it. Identifying and marking Porter's grave was one of Elba's Bicentennial projects.

the Elba HS Band.

Also, Hammonds said any food donations for the hospitality area should be directed to band booster Michael Woodham.

"We are still looking for sponsors to cover the cost of adjudication for the contest," said Hammonds. "Any amount will be appreciated. There are still opportunities to be contest sponsors as well."

Current sponsors for the event include: City of Elba Water and Electric, Subway, Bryan's Pharmacy, National Security, WEEVIL 101, Williams Signs, Affordable Luxury of Opp, Williams Auto Parts, Ben E Keith Foods, The Jewel Box, Kid's Unlimited, Chic-Fil-A, and Texas Roadhouse of Pensacola, FL.

The list of business partners for the contest is updated on the official Elba High School Marching Tiger Band Facebook page as they come in to Hammonds. He said it is not too late to be added to that list!

"This is going to be a really excited and fun-filled day in Elba," Hammonds said. "We encourage anyone who enjoys marching bands to come out that day and support all these youngsters. You will not regret it!"

Hammonds said the full schedule for the day should be ready by the end of this week.

Admission for the Pea River Marching Band Classic is $7 per person. Band performances are set to start at 2 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 27, at Elba's Tiger Stadium, located on the Elba City Schools campus.
